

Suspect Human Trafficking?

Think You Might Be a Victim of Human Trafficking? Ask Yourself the Following Questions:

- Has anyone ever taken your identification, or provided you with an alternative or fake identification?
- Have you ever worked without getting paid?
- Have you ever been punished (beaten, deprived of food, water, or sleep, isolated, etc.) for not making a certain amount of money?
- Does anyone control your food (whether or not you ate, how much, what food, etc.)?
- Have you ever lived or worked at a place where the doors/windows were locked and you could not leave when you wanted?
- Has anyone ever denied your contact with family, friends, or others?
- Has anyone taken/kept money that was yours in exchange for food, transportation, rent, clothing, beauty treatments, etc?
- Have you ever felt that if you wanted to leave that situation, you ---or someone you care about --- would be in danger?
- Have you ever received anything of value (money, housing, food, gifts, drugs, etc.) in exchange for sexual contact?

I Think I'm a Victim of Human Trafficking...What Should I Do?

- Contact the authorities.
 - Local police
 - State police
- Review our emergency contact sheet